

EMERGENCY ASSISTANCE FUND (EAF) GUIDELINES

Purpose: To assist victims of violent crime in emergency situations in which health and/or safety are at risk when other resources are unavailable. The PRIMARY concern is to help decrease the emotional trauma as well as the financial burden to crime victims.

Definition of Emergency: That which is IMMEDIATE and a DIRECT RESULT OF THE CRIME that consequently leads to the need for services. The determination as to what constitutes an emergency is left to the discretion of the administering agency, under the guidance of the CVRC Grant Administrators.

Important to Note: This fund is not intended to be a substitute for victims' compensation, but rather to support immediate services to victims when no other resources are available.

Allowable costs: The maximum amount of emergency funding available to an individual victim cannot exceed $3,000.00. Approved emergency fund requests are intended to support immediate health and/or safety needs. ER funds are once in a lifetime. Allowable Expenses:

- Eyeglasses or contact lenses.
- Utilities, gas, electric, water, telephone, etc. Arrears associated with the victimization are eligible and should be reasonable, upon approval by NMCVRC.
- Emergency counseling and mental health assessments.
- Rent (one time only) Arrears associated with the victimization are eligible and should be reasonable; victim must have plan to pay following month.
- Mileage (not to exceed New Mexico State mileage rate).
- Per diem (not to exceed New Mexico State rate).
- Relocation expenses including moving, storage, hotel, etc.
- Crime scene clean-up if no collateral insurance. (not to exceed $2,000)
- Food and clothing.
- Emergency shelter/temporary housing (hotel).
- Necessary and reasonable transportation costs to receive emergency services.
- Medical prescriptions.
- Necessary and reasonable EAF fund expenses for secondary victims such as spouses and family members.
- Legal assistance with orders of protection, emergency custody & visitation procedures, and civil legal assistance upon approval by NMCVRC (not to exceed $2,000).
- Towing Fees not to exceed $500.00. Vehicle repairs not to exceed $250.
- Repairs or replacement of items for the victim such as re-keying and lock replacement, broken/damaged doors, windows and security equipment costs, necessary for immediate health and safety.

UNALLOWABLE COSTS (under no circumstance can these be considered):

1. Long term housing, including ongoing rent and utilities.
2. Expenses related to recovering lost property.
3. Funeral or burial expenses.

Please DO NOT refer victims directly to the EAF Administering Agencies. This is doing the victims a disservice since they will be directed to contact a victim service agency in their area who is more knowledgeable about local resources and who can assist them with the EAF request.
